

TUESDAY 13 September

AGM

followed by Caroline Ferguson's illustrated talk

'An artists response to the First World War' including some of her own work

Note from the Chairman

As I announced at our last meeting in April I shall not be standing as a candidate for the Committee or for the position of Chairman at the next AGM in September.

When the committee is elected. I know there are those of you who feel they can do a much better job than me, so why not come along and offer your services? We do need some new committee members as well. Whoever you elect to run the Society, do give them your support and help at Exhibitions whichever way you can. Peter Grimer

TUESDAY 11 October

Demo by Brian Bennett of Landscape in oils

Brian Bennett was taught English at school by Peter Greenham R.A, who inspired him to become a painter. He paints in oils with a knife, mostly landscapes of Chilterns, where he lives, concentrating on wild flowers that grow on the chalk and on the wide panoramic views from the escarpment.

TUESDAY 15 November

Demo by David Lewry of Landscape in Watercolour

David Lewry and his family live in Bedford where he spends his time teaching and painting the beautiful countryside and villages of the Ouse valley. He is an experienced and sensitive teacher in watercolour painting and drawing, especially aware of the needs of adult beginners or those returning to art after many years.

TUESDAY 10 January

Demo by Phil Madley on Encaustic Wax Art

Phil has worked with Art Profile for a number of years delivering over 50 demonstrations and is very popular due to his original techniques and his amusing, knowledgeable and enthusiastic delivery. A professional artist who specialises in encaustic wax painting using an iron, hot stylus and hot air gun to produce some quite amazing paintings.

TUESDAY 21 February

Demo by Keith Morton on Acrylic Still Life

Keith's art education was gained during four years at Hornsey College of Art. He is an enthusiastic tutor and believes that good observation leads to good paintings. He now tutors Portraiture, Still Life and Life workshops, demonstrates Still Life and Portraiture to art societies, undertakes commissions, and paints people he admires.

SATURDAY WORKSHOPS

SATURDAY 8th October 2016 9am - 1pm

Hastoe Village Hall, Church Lane, Hastoe, HP23 6LU, (near Tring)

BAS Life Drawing and Painting Session

This is a 4-hour session with one or two models (depending upon numbers) and no tutor. The cost is £15 each (including tea/coffee). You need to bring all your own equipment. The large delightful hall was built by Lady Emma Rothschild in 1898 for the local villagers and has just been renovated. The hall has large windows overlooking a paddock and countryside to the south.

There is plenty of parking.

Please visit: www.hastoevillagehall.co.uk for directions, or these can be sprinkled upon application.
