GREAT PROGRAMME

TUESDAY 13 OCTOBER

Coastal Scenes in Acrylic with John Heywood

I used to paint mainly in watercolour but today I usually paint in acrylics, (using a palette of Liquitex and Derivan Matisse colours), on gesso prepared mdf board, occasionally in combination with collage.

TUESDAY 10 NOVEMBER

Mixed Media - Still Life
Demonstration by Joanna Stone

During the last 20 years or so I have exhibited in and around Bedfordshire, and belong to the Artists' Network Bedfordshire. I have undertaken a number of commissions over the years and various other works are now also in private collections. During a demonstration I will show the process I work through from the beginning to achieve a finished picture, explaining the choices I am making as I go. I am happy to answer any questions as I draw or paint, and welcome feedback at the end.

TUESDAY 5 JANUARY 2016

Seasonal Landscape in watercolour

Jo Louca

Primarily a landscape painter, but always concentrating on the elemental power of light, atmosphere and the mood of an area. Although I intend a specific reading for each painting I purposefully make the works non prescriptive, allowing the viewer to interpret each work in their own way. Everyone seeing something different I propose to demonstrate some of the techniques and ideas behind my paintings.
